

2007 Achilles Walk for Hope & Possibility Atlanta, Georgia

Thanks to the Atlanta Team RSDSA for helping us raise money for research on June 17.

Atlanta Team Captain Karen McManus and her two dogs.

Achilles chair Tricia Meili and Mary Bryant were on hand for the first Atlanta run

CRPS Medalists

Lauren Vance, center above, won 2nd place for disabled ambulatory female. Larry Hicks, right, ran with the freedom team of wounded veterans, but he has CRPS. He won first place for disabled ambulatory males.

Held on Father's Day, it was a celebration of family

!

9-year-old Savannah Sipsy, who has CRPS finishes the walk on her dad's shoulders while the family of a woman with CRPS help her keep going.

Achilles Brings People Together

Ashley Mahoney, who often writes for the RSDSA Review(l) and Karen McManus (r), Captain of Team RSDSA flank Nancy Jacobus, one of the runners whose granddaughter, Savannah, has CRPS.

A group of friends form a team to raise money for someone who has CRPS

Achilles Brings People Together

Jim Broatch with the team to raise money in honor of Savannah Sipsey.

Achilles Brings People Together

Medalist Lauren Vance's family walked and offered support.